2. Let's Sing for the Mother

Loving You

Elvis Presley

I will spend my whole life through loving you, loving you.
Winter, summer, spring-time, too,
loving you, loving you.
Makes no difference where I go or what I do.
You know that I'll always be loving you.

If I'm seen with someone new,
don't be blue, don't be blue.
I'll be faithful, I'll be true;
always true, true to you.
There is only one for me, and you know who.
You know that I'll always be loving you.

Я проведу всю мою жизнь
любя тебя, любя тебя.
Зимой, летом, весной тоже,
любя тебя, любя тебя.
Не важно, куда я пойду или что я буду делать.
Ты знаешь, что я всегда буду любить тебя.

Если меня увидят с кем-то новым,
Не грусти, не грусти.
Я буду верен, я буду предан,
всегда предан, предан тебе.
Для меня существует только одна, и ты знаешь, кто.
Ты знаешь, что я всегда буду любить тебя.

3. You Are More Beautiful Than You Think

Ты красивее, чем ты думаешь. Describing appearance. Описание внешности.

I'm a forensic artist. I've worked for the San Jose Police Department from 1995 to 2011.

I showed up to a place I had never been and there was a guy with a drafting board.

We couldn't see them. They couldn't see us.

"Tell me about your hair." I didn't know what he was doing, but then I could tell after several questions that he was drawing me.

"Tell me about your chin." "It kind of protrudes a little bit, especially when I smile."

"Your jaw?" "My mom told me I had a big jaw."

"What would be your most prominent feature?" "I kind of have a fat, rounder face." "The older I've gotten the more freckles I've gotten." "I would say I have a pretty big forehead."

Once I get a sketch, I say "thank you very much" and then they leave. I don't see them.

All I had been told before the sketch was to get friendly with this other woman, Chloe.

"Today I'm going to ask you some questions about a person you met earlier and I'm going to ask you some general questions about their face." "She was thin so you could see her cheekbones and her chin was a nice thin chin." "She had nice eyes. They lit up when she spoke." "Cute nose." "She had blue eyes, very nice blue eyes."

"This is the sketch that you had me create and that's the sketch of that somebody described of you." "So ya, that's..."

"She looks closed off and fatter and sadder. The second one looks more open, friendly, and happy."

"I should be more grateful of my natural beauty." "It impacts the choices and the friends that we make, the jobs we apply for, how we treat our children, it impacts everything. It couldn't be more critical to your happiness."

"Do you think you're more beautiful than you say?" "Ya."

"We spend a lot of time, as women, analyzing and trying to fix the things that aren't quite right and we should spend more time appreciating the things that we do like."

Я судебный художник, проработавший с 1995г. по 2011 г. в полицейском управлении Сан-Хосе.

Я пришла туда, где никогда не была, и там был мужчина с чертежной доской.

Мы их не видели. Они не видели нас.

«Какие у Вас волосы?» Я не знала, что он делал, но после нескольких вопросов я догадалась, что он рисует меня.

«Какой у Вас подбородок?» «Он немного выпирает, особенно, когда я улыбаюсь».

«Ваша челюсть?» «Моя мама говорила, что у меня крупная челюсть».

«Какие Ваши самые характерные черты лица?» «У меня, я бы сказала, полное круглое лицо». «Чем старше я становлюсь, тем больше у меня веснушек». «Я бы сказала, что у меня высокий лоб».

Когда рисунок готов, я их благодарю, и они уходят. Я их не вижу.

Мне сказали, что все, что мне нужно сделать до того, как будет создан рисунок, это расположить к себе эту женщину, Клое.

«Сегодня я задам Вам несколько вопросов о женщине, с которой Вы познакомились, и некоторые общие вопросы о ее лице». «Она худощавая, заметные скулы, с милым тонким подбородком». «У нее милый взгляд. Когда она говорит, ее глаза светятся». «Симпатичный носик». «У нее голубые глаза, очень красивые голубые глаза».

«Вот это рисунок, который я создал по Вашим словам, а это рисунок со слов другого человека». «О, да.. Это...»

«Здесь она выглядит замкнутой, более полной и грустной. На втором рисунке она выглядит более открытой, дружелюбной и счастливой».

«Мне надо больше ценить мою естественную красоту». «Это влияет на наш выбор; на друзей, которых мы приобретаем; на работу, которую мы хотим получить; на то, как мы ведем себя со своими детьми; это влияет абсолютно на все. От этого зависит ваше счастье».

«Вы красивее, чем Вы думаете?» «Да».

«Мы, женщины, проводим много времени, анализируя и стараясь исправить то, что не совсем так, вместо того, чтобы ценить то, что нам нравится.»

4. Mother's Day Gift Ideas

Какие подарки сделать маме. Идеи, обсуждение подарков и покупок.

We're at the green house. Look at all the pretty flowers. Take one of these? Sure, we'll grab a cart. And flowers always make a great Mother's Day gift. My mom always loves getting the hanging baskets.

Another good gift idea for Mother's Day would be a nice frame with a picture of you and your mom or you and your brothers and sisters. These ones are at Target. These are seven ninety nine. I really like this one.

Another good idea is wind chimes (китайские колокольчики). I know my mom loves wind chimes. I actually bought her some of these rain type chimes last year for a gift and she loved them. You can find wind chimes pretty much anywhere.

Other little garden stuff is cute too. They have these adorable little owl plant stakes. You can get her a plant and stick a few of these in there. These are at Target. They're three fifty nine. They just have tons of cute garden stuff.

Another gift I love getting on Mother's Day is candles. Candles always make a great gift because everybody likes to make their house smell good. And just to let you guys know, Bath and Body Works does have their three wick candles on sale, I think from now until Saturday or Sunday. If you would like to pick a few of those up for your mom they're on sale for two for twenty, which is a really good deal because normally they are nineteen fifty each.

And of course, don't forget the Mother's day card. If you don't have enough money to buy a card, you could always make one. That's a giant Mother's Day card. For another idea, grab a really bright and pretty makeup bag and fill it up with a bunch of different makeup products and nail polishes.

Now we are at the Dollar Tree and they have a ton of hand lotions, soaps, bubble baths over here. Look how cute the bottle on this one is. This is white hot chocolate bubble bath. These would be cute to take and put in one of these brightly colored baskets to give your mom for Mother's Day. They have soaps, they have bath salt, hand wash, lotion. Something like this; put a loofah (натуральная мочалка) in there, one of these microfiber headband. Right here is a lotion and this basically looks like a lotion from Bath and Body Works for only a dollar. So you can do something like this and this whole basket would only cost six dollars.

Mother's Day in Power English Class

There's a lot of Mother's Day cards at the dollar store and they're only one dollar. They have some really nice ones here. So instead of spending five or six dollars on a card you can come here and get one for one dollar.

Lush products also make great Mother's Day gifts. If your mom is one of those people that's really hard to buy for you could always get her a gift card to her favorite store. Victoria's Secret has some super cute gift cards and then also some gift card holders. They have this one right here, as well as this box. You could get her a gift card to Starbucks if she likes that. You could get her one to her favorite restaurant, to her hair salon. Gift cards always make great gifts.

Our next idea for a gift would be a bird feeder if your mom likes watching birds. I'm here at Meijer right now but you can buy bird feeders pretty much anywhere. Hummingbird feeders would be a really good idea this time of year because all of the hummingbirds are coming out. I love watching the hummingbirds. They're really neat birds to watch.

I'm going to show you guys one of the gifts that we are actually going to make for my mom. It is one of these bird feeders right here. This is one that we've had for a few years. Phil and I made this one a couple years ago and my mom really likes it so we are going to make one of these for her. It's really cool because it has the mirror on it and the birds will sit up there and look in the mirror and they'll sing to themselves.
