1. Song of the Week:

Over the river and through the woods,
To grandmother's house we go;
The horse knows the way to carry the sleigh,
Through white and drifted snow, oh!

Over the river and through the woods,
Oh, how the wind does blow!
It stings the toes and bites the nose,
As over the ground we go.

Over the river and through the woods,
To have a full day of play;
Oh, hear the bells ring, "Ting-a-ling-ling!"
For it's Thanksgiving Day-ay!

Over the river and through the woods,
Trot fast, my dapple gray!
Spring over the ground,
Just like a hound!
Hooray, Thanksgiving Day!

Over the river and through the woods,
To grandmother's house we go;
The horse knows the way to carry the sleigh,
Through white and drifted snow, oh!

Over the river and through the woods,
Oh, how the wind does blow!
It stings the toes and bites the nose,
As over the ground we go.

Over the river, and through the woods,
And straight through the barnyard gate,
It seems we go so dreadfully slow,
It is so hard to wait!

Over the river and through the woods,
Now Grandmother's cap I spy!
Hooray for the fun! The pudding's done.
Hooray for the pumpkin pie!

Hooray for the fun! The pudding's done.
Hooray for the pumpkin pie!
